Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace; Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is sadness, joy. Title will open doors, Miss Fort Wayne says

By ALAN DERRINGER
Of The News-Sentinel

The new Miss Fort Wayne, Amy Monnier, says she's "still trying to get over" winning the local scholarship pageant.

"I see it as terrific opportunity to make connections and further my career," says the 20-year-old Ball State University senior, who is studying choral music.

She will vie for the crown of Miss Indiana in June in Michigan City.

Monnier, who was crowned Miss Fort Wayne 1986 on Friday, rode in Saturday's Three Rivers Festival parade. Kids from the city's summer park program yelled congratulations as Monnier passed in a convertible; her summer job is teaching them crafts and playing games.

Monnier, a 1982 Bishop Luers High School graduate, came out tops among 16 young women in the two-day pageant, to win a $1,250 scholarship.

First runner-up was Rochelle Anglin, a 1984 South Side High School graduate, who won a $750 scholarship. Second runner-up was Tamara Palmersheim, a 1984 Bishop Luers graduate, winning a $500 scholarship.

Third runner-up was Diane Alexander, a 1982 Carroll High School graduate who received a $400 scholarship. Fourth runner-up and winner of a $300 scholarship was Leslie Spearin, who graduated from New Haven High School this year.

The talent contest was weighted most heavily in judging. Monnier won that category by singing "This is One of Those Moments," from the movie "Yentl." She also has appeared in Fort Wayne Civic Theatre musicals.

Amy Monnier: Miss Fort Wayne 1986

The five pageant judges interviewed her about current events and her plans. When they asked what she would do if she were president and someone hijacked an airliner, she said, "They were looking for poise. . . . I said I would handle it the same way President Reagan did. It's foolish to give in to terrorists."

She is the daughter of Jim and Lucy Monnier of Fort Wayne.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace; Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is sadness, joy. Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console: To be understood as to understand; To be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

December 15, 1914
October 7, 1999

O gentlest heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou O Merciful Saviour, send Thy Angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Merciful Jesus grant eternal rest.
